MAY IS MILITARY APPRECIATION MONTH AT MAC 24-7
Restaurant Joins the Community in Saying "Mahalo"

HONOLULU, HI – MAC 24-7 in the Hilton Waikiki Prince Kuhio is joining Hawaii's community in celebrating "Military Appreciation Month". Throughout the entire month of May, military personnel and their families are invited to present their identification cards and they'll be treated to a Chef's Choice of Appetizer.

"All of the employees of MAC 24-7 and the Hilton Waikiki Prince Kuhio look forward to welcoming and expressing our appreciation to our service people and their families," said Marina Jones, Director of Restaurant Operations. "We want to add our 'Mahalo' with those of everyone in our community throughout the month. Our special presentation (one per table) is a small token of thanks to our military 'ohana but it comes with a great deal of Aloha."

MAC 24-7, in the Hilton Waikiki Prince Kuhio, is Waikiki's only 24-hour full service restaurant and bar (6 a.m.-4 a.m.) and offers every menu item at any time, day or night. Guests can dine, unwind and rewind after hours in a contemporary comfortably-casual atmosphere. MAC 24-7, with a familiar, come-anytime ambiance, appeals to families and visitors during the day and early evenings, and attracts "night owls" after-hours for a late-night snack or full-on meal. For sports fans, four 50" plasma TVs cover international and national sporting events.

The menu at MAC (Modern American Cooking) 24-7 (all day, all night, every day) features classic local and mainland favorites with inspiration and flair from breakfast, lunch, pau hana, dinner and desserts—no matter what time!
